DEDICATION

We, the Senior Class of 1967, Belgrade High School, Belgrade, Minnesota dedicate this 1967 POW WOW to our parents in deep appreciation for helping us during our school years.

We are especially indebted to them for the courage and devotion they have shown throughout our school years, and for their encouragement for us to attain the highest. All State Player

The 1966 football season was an exciting one. Of nine games scheduled, we won seven and were defeated twice.

In the first game, Osakis upset us 27 to 6. We then went on to win 6 games in a row, including our homecoming when we defeated the Atwater Panthers 60 to 0. This put us in a tie for first place with New London. We played New London on their home field where they defeated us 39 to 14. In our last game we defeated Kerkhoven 34 to 12.

Although we lost 2 games there were four players to receive all conference trophies, three seniors and a junior. The seniors were the team's tri-captains Craig Bahe, Jim Anderson, and Doug Halvorson. Junior Ken Haskamp received the fourth trophy. Also Jim Anderson was elected to the all state team of the year.

The Belgrade Redmen had a great season this past year under their new coach Mr. Burt Bardahl. This year two outstanding seniors, Craig Bahe and Doug Halvorson led the team as co-captains. Other seniors included Joel Den Hartog, Jim Anderson, and Ken Schmiesing. The Redmen were coached by Mr. Burt Bardahl, head coach and Mr. David Sieben, assistant coach. The prospects look very good for next year even though the Redmen will lose three senior starters.
